Second Harvest Heartland and Child Hunger Coalition Host Press Conference to Introduce Breakfast After the Bell Bill

Proposed legislation would help the one in eight Minnesota children who experience hunger on any given day

What: A press conference to introduce the Breakfast After the Bell initiative – proposed legislation (HF 1037, SF 1427) by Second Harvest Heartland and a child hunger coalition comprised of community partners. The bill supports the healthy growth of Minnesota kids and a healthy, prosperous future for our state. Nationwide studies show that eating breakfast at school has a positive effect on test scores, grades, school attendance and tardiness rates. Reducing barriers to school breakfasts is an important way of fostering healthy cognitive and physical development for Minnesota students. The proposed legislation makes it easier for kids to get breakfast at school so they can learn and develop healthy brains and bodies. Incentives like meal reimbursements for school districts – to either establish or expand school breakfast programs – are included in the bill. Chief authors from the Minnesota House of Representatives and Senate will discuss the impact the bill would have on the one in eight children who currently experience hunger.

The child hunger coalition is led by local communities and supported by major public and private partners such as Boston Consulting Group, Cargill, Blue Cross and Blue Shield of Minnesota, Children's Minnesota, General Mills, Hunger Solutions, Minnesota Milk Producers, Minnesota School Nutrition Association, The Sheridan Story and Youthprise.
